About

In Ballard Merchants Association ("Association") is a non profit organization organized under the laws of the State of Washington. The objective of the Association is to provide a distinct competitive advantage and improve the economic climate for the Ballard area merchants and community organizations (collectively referred to as "Members") by providing a means of coordinated mutual cooperation. The Association plans to engage in and promote programs and publicity through special events, cooperative advertising, harmonious decorative displays, and other joint endeavors.

Disclaimer

As a Member and/or Sponsor of the Association you agree to release, discharge, and hold harmless the Association, the Board of Directors, employees and its successors from any and all liability, claims and demands of any kind or nature, either in law or equity, which arise or may arise from your membership/sponsorship of the Association and/or participation in the Association's coordinated efforts. Further, you understand and acknowledge that this disclaimer releases the Association from any liability for any injury, damage, or any losses you may suffer, in any way connected with your participation in the Association.

Call for Volunteers

The In Ballard Merchants Association needs your help with our Holidays in Ballard events. If you or anyone you know would like to volunteer, please contact Tiffany via email at volunteers@inballard.com.

Santa in Ballard

December 5th:

3pm-6pm 6 people, and 6pm-9pm 6 people

We need volunteers to decorate the Santa Station and set up the tables for the cocoa and coffee. We will also need to have someone stationed at the Fire Truck from 4pm-6pm, assist with the Santa photos and crowd control, run the coffee station, and clean up.

DJ Vinny in Ballard/Artwalk

December 12th:

3pm-6pm 3 people, and 6pm-9pm 3 people

We will need the people to set up 2 tents and hand out maps and then break down the tents.

Luminaries in Ballard

December 19th:

1pm-3pm 20 people, 3pm-6pm 10 people, and 6pm-9pm 3 people

This big event will need lot of people to pass out the luminaries and matches to each merchant. We will also need people at every hay ride station and then at clean up.
